

Easter Play 2018 "Highlight the CHRIST in all of us!"

It's my second year volunteering and I'm still impressed by the dedication and effort of the CPC members, Parent and Teachers. It's truly a gift of love! I have never once regretted my decision of stepping forward as a parent volunteer and being in the CHIJ Easter play is the highlight, among all the other events I have helped at so far.

COURAGE

HUMILITY

Having never been in any sort of play previously, I was an apprehensive participant. However, as I attended each practice session, the passion of the other parent volunteers really moved me and their enthusiasm was infectious. I found myself contributing lots and giving the best of myself. All of us wanted to put up the best performance on Easter Monday for the students.

THOUGHTFULNESS

The focus on the C.H.R.I.S.T. values is also one of the things I absolutely love about my daughter studying here and I was really motivated to show the students what it meant to truly live the values in their everyday lives.

INTEGRITY

RESPECT

The actual day of the play was very special for me and it was the climax of all the hard work we had put in. I could really tell the girls enjoyed watching us put up the performance based on their loud cheering and clapping when they saw their teachers and parents on stage.

STEADFASTNESS

Their enthusiasm totally overwhelmed the music, the background and it was even more special as they joined in the song with us. I was especially moved by the prayer montage created and found myself holding back tears as I read every prayer letter sent in. For the first time in many years, I, myself, truly experienced the joys of this most important feast in the Catholic calendar, and it was not just a day of obligation.

I thank God for touching me and calling me to make CHIJ volunteering one of my life's true vocations. It has given me as much as I have given to it.

By Caroline Chiew, mother of Amelia Grace Chiew P2 Violet